Journal of the Royal Naval Medical Service

PUBLISHED THREE TIMES A YEAR
(The Ministry of Defence (N) does not accept responsibility for the opinions expressed in this Journal)

FRONTISPICE... 199
EDITORIAL... 200
ARTICLES
Drugs for the Cancer Surgeon. By Surgeon Rear-Admiral James Watt, QHS, MS, FRCS
Gingival Health in Polaris and Conventional Submarines. By Surgeon Commander (D) Naylor, BSc, PhD, FDS, RCS(Eng), LDS, RD, RNR;
Surgeon Commander (D) G. D. Sharpe, BDS, LDS, FDS, RN and
Surgeon Commander (D) C. T. Stacey, LDS, RN
Caries Experience of Fifteen Year Old Recruits joining the Royal Navy at HMS Ganges. By Surgeon Lieutenant (D) L. C. Langan, BDS, RN
Bilharziasis in Mauritius — A Review. By Surgeon Commander R. J. Morrow, MB, FRCS, RN
Calcium, Magnesium and Phosphate Metabolism during Protracted Exposure to Carbon Dioxide. By Mr S. P. Gray, MSc, ARIC; Surgeon Commander R. J. W. Lambert, MA, MB, BCh, MRCS, LRCP, DPH, DIH, RN, and Mr J. E. Morris, FRMLT

CLINICAL NOTES AND CASES
A Case of Congenital Atresia of the Choana. By Surgeon Captain G. S. Irvine, MB, BS, FRCS, LRCP, DLO, RN
A Case of Cerebello-Pontine Angle Tumour. By Surgeon Commander P. W. Head, MB, BS, DLO, RN
Malaria. Weekly Epidemiological Records, World Health Organisation No 23, 6.6.69

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR... 254

THE ROYAL NAVY MEDICAL CLUB DINNER, 1969... 257

NEWS OF THE SERVICE
Queen’s Honorary Dental Surgeon; Higher Qualifications; Promotions; Provisional selections for Promotion to date December 31, 1969; New Entries; Re-Entries; Retirements; Released on Completion of Short Service Commission; Wardmaster Officers; Queen Alexandra’s Royal Naval Nursing Service; Royal Naval Reserve

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE
Surgeon Rear-Admiral S. Miles, CB, QHP
Surgeon Rear-Admiral J. Watt, QHS
Surgeon Captain L. G. Topham, RN, Professor of Naval Medicine
Surgeon Captain (D) F. B. Gamble, RN
Mrs Joan Reynolds