NOTICE

THE EDITOR invites medical and dental staff to send in original papers on professional subjects, travel, personal experiences and other matters. Items of news and matters of interest to the naval medical service will be welcomed from ships and establishments on home and foreign stations. Notices of births, marriages and deaths are inserted free of charge to subscribers.

All articles or communications published in the JOURNAL OF THE ROYAL NAVAL MEDICAL SERVICE will become the property of the JOURNAL with full copyright powers, unless the author declares when sending in the article that he desires to reserve the copyright to himself.

Articles and communications may be sent at any time to The Editor, Journal of the Royal Naval Medical Service, Institute of Naval Medicine, Alverstoke, Hants, PO12 2DL. Two copies should be submitted in typescript. Double spacing should be used throughout.

References—the name of the author and the date of publication are given in the text, thus 'Smith (1935) believed this to be due, etc . . .' or '. . . lack of basic information on the strategic fundamentals of the science of the sea (Carlson, 1956)'. The list of authors quoted is put at the end of the article in alphabetical order. Each reference in the list should give, in order, the author's name, initials, the year of publication (in brackets), the title of the paper, the name of the journal in full, the volume and the number of the first and last pages. For books, the place of publication should be stated and the publisher's name.

The JOURNAL is published three times a year, three numbers comprising one volume.

Subscriptions

For RN and RNR medical and dental personnel on the active or retired list, and for Consultants to the Royal Navy, the subscription is £2 per annum (post free) payable on January 1 of each year. Single copies 70p.

For all others who are not in the above categories, the subscription is £2.40 per annum (post free), or 80p per single copy.

Cheques and postal orders should be crossed 'Lloyds Bank Ltd' and made payable to the Editor, The Journal of the Royal Naval Medical Service.

The payment of subscriptions by banker's order is recommended as it relieves the subscriber of the necessity of forwarding a cheque each year and simplifies the keeping of accounts.
